

MURDERED.

Tom Met Murdered While Protecting His Store in the Person.

MARK HANNA FOR SENATOR.

Fire Claims Three Victims, the Deadly Grate the Cause.

SWALLOWED A LIZZARD AND DIED.

Henderson, Ky., Nov. 14.—This city was the scene of a robbery and murder last night. Tom Metzger was murdered last night while attempting to protect his store against robbers.

Fell Into the Fire. Lexington, Nov. 14.—James Parker, of this city, an old man 90 years of age, today fell into the grate and was burned to death before he was discovered.

Another Death by Fire. Uniontown, Ky., Nov. 14.—Mrs. Liguard Byrne died today from burns received by her clothes catching fire. She was washing clothes and her dress caught fire from the grate.

Is Being Tried for Forgery. Indianapolis, Nov. 14.—Percy Sullivan, of this city, who was recently arrested in St. Louis for forgery, is now being tried here. He still claims that he is not the man, but that it is a case of mistaken identity. It is thought, however, that he will be convicted.

Hanna for Senator. Canton, O., Nov. 14.—The latest political rumor is that Mark A. Hanna will be a candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator Brice. This rumor is considered to be well founded. Should Hanna become a candidate he will almost certainly be elected.

Death in the County. Dallas, Minn., Nov. 14.—A well known young man of the Grahamville section, and son of Mr. Jordan Sumner, died last night of erysipelas, aged 17. He was unmarried and leaves besides his parents several brothers and sisters. The remains were buried this afternoon at the hillside burial ground.

Delaware Solid. Wilmington, Del., Nov. 14.—Governor Watson issued a proclamation yesterday declaring that all the vote cast for James G. Shaw and James G. Shaw, Sr., for Presidential electors shall count for James G. Shaw, as his name was on the several ballots in two ways. This will send three McKinley electors from Delaware to the electoral college.

Knox County Mines. Harboursville, Ky., Nov. 14.—The Canal coal mine, Knox county, which has been shut down on account of hard times, will start up again, and will commence building the railroad to Stinking creek as soon as possible. It is said that this is one of the finest canal coal mines in any state in the Union. The other mines will also work full force.

Work for Thousands. Duluth, Minn., Nov. 14.—It is officially announced here that the Rockefeller iron syndicate has sold $500,000 worth of Minnesota ore, to be delivered next season, and 60,000 tons of Spanish-American ore. This will enable the underground mines on the Mesabi range to resume operations at once and will give employment to thousands of men.

Valuable Horses Burned. Lexington, Nov. 14.—Jest B. the pacing mare which holds the world's record, was burned last night with six other valuable horses. The horses were the property of Mrs. Stokes, of New York. The stable caught fire and burned with the horses before they could be rescued.

Stocks Are All Up. New York, Nov. 14.—The week closing today has witnessed the highest prices for stock of all kinds that have been known since the beginning of the panic. The bank statement today is most encouraging, showing a gain in deposits of $16,000,000.

Great Loss of Life. Vienna, Nov. 14.—Reports have reached here of great loss of life at the village of Hilsenon from duels. One hundred and thirty persons are said to have lost their lives and the destruction of property is enormous.

A Colored Man Wins. Boston, Nov. 14.—The board of election commissioners finished the recount of votes in the fortieth councilor district last night, and Isaac D. Allen, the republican candidate, was declared elected over Hon. John H. Sullivan, who now represents the district, and who was the democratic candidate. Allen's majority was only 62 votes. There is no appeal from the decision of the election commissioners, and the governor's council stands for the first time.

TWO WIVES.

It Appears That Lee Gallion Was a Bigamist.

BOTH WANT THE REMAINS.

The Railroad Authorities and Coroner at a Loss to Know How to Proceed.

HIS WIVES BOTH EXPECTED TODAY.

The remains of Lee Gallion, the colored I. C. brakeman who was killed yesterday at the Tennessee street crossing, are much in demand, seemingly.

Claim Agent J. G. Miller, Trainmaster J. J. Flynn and Coroner Nance were in desperate straits last night. Mr. Flynn discovered that Gallion had two wives, both dead, true and loyal spouses, one living at Central City and the other at Memphis. Both telegraphed to ship the remains, and both claimed that they were entitled to them by priority of matrimony.

WAR REMOVS.

That Spain is Preparing to Fight With Uncle Sam.

Washington, Nov. 14.—It is thought here that Spain is preparing for war with United States. This is responsible for the sudden revival of the agitation of the Cuban question and for the activity in preparing our fleet for service. This government is basing on the belief that but two weeks ago the United States was at peace with Spain. One of these things is the justification of the Cuban war in six weeks. The other is the intervention of Great Britain to compel Spain to grant the liberty of Cuba.

The first is not regarded as at all probable. The second may happen, but still the prospect is remote.

The plan of Spain going to war with the United States seems so absurd that an explanation of the situation in which the Spanish government is placed is necessary. It is recognized by the United States that Spain cannot relinquish her hold in Cuba without all the expenditure of blood and treasure which this revolution has cost, without its involving the overthrow of the present government of Spain. If the three parties in Spain the reigning power is regarded as the weakest with the people. Whether the Spanish government doubts that Cuban independence would result immediately in a revolution and cost the power if not the lives of the king and regent.

A TOWN Wiped Out.

Hinson Springs, a Watering Place of Note.

Entirely Destroyed by the Fire of Friday Afternoon.

Hinson Springs, a pleasure and health resort of considerable notoriety on the line of this road one mile south of Lexington, Tenn., was entirely destroyed by fire Friday afternoon. The origin of the conflagration was not learned. As Conductor Tom Pile's train came through yesterday afternoon the "mammoth" hotel and all the surrounding cottages were in full blaze. From later advice we learn that the fire spread made a clean sweep and nothing of the white beautiful resort remains but the charred and smoking ash heap. The Springs were the property of J. H. Long, who was formerly a resident of this city. It is not known whether or not he carried any insurance.

NIBLETT WAS STUBBORN.

And Refused to Go Back to Metropolis.

Without a Requisition—Committed to Jail This Forenoon.

Officer J. P. Evers, of Metropolis, came after John Niblett, wanted at that place for breaking into a store and stealing a set of harness, this forenoon, and Judge Sanders had the prisoner brought up from the lockup for the purpose of turning him over to the Illinois officer. Niblett was obstinate, however, and refused to go without a requisition. This unexpected turn of affairs resulted in the prisoner being committed to the county jail to await the proper papers, and Officer Evers returned home this afternoon.

Just Received.

An American living in a city, and who has never been abroad, does not know to appreciate the enormous advantages he has in the way of rapid transit by street railways over his European brother's situation. With us a city that still clings to her ancient horsemen is considered "dead slow" and considered not up to date. The rapid trolley stretches its rails in all directions, traversing all of the principal streets of our cities and connecting them with miles and miles of their suburbs and often with other cities. In our larger cities, like New York, the elevated railroads or the cable cars daily carry their thousands of passengers with the highest possible speed consistent with safety, recognizing the great American need of covering a given distance in the shortest possible time.

Across the ocean all this is changed; there the trolley is almost, and with one exception the elevated road wholly unknown, and the residents of even London have to depend almost entirely on the primitive bus. This seems almost beyond belief to an American, but such is the fact.

Let us therefore glance at the different methods of public conveyance in this, the largest city in the world. In London the principal means of getting around is by buses, and it is estimated that there are nearly a thousand of them in use every day. The greater part of them are owned by the London General Omnibus Company, and their semi-annual report shows that in six months they carried the enormous number of 52,815,427 passengers, the total distance driven being 9,991,300 miles.

Omibuses first came into use in 1829. Before that time people had to get around as best they could. They ran daily from 8 a. m. to 12 at night, and the fares vary, according to the distance, from 1 penny to 6 pence in English money, or from 2 cents to 12 cents in ours. Contrast this with our elevated trains running all night and on which one may ride from the Battery to Harlem for a nickel.

The London bus is a huge lumbering vehicle drawn by two or three horses and plastered over with advertising signs. They are all double-deckers; that is, they have seats both inside and on top, the inside seats running lengthwise, and those on top crosswise, with an aisle down the center. The top seats are reached by means of a winding stairway from the rear. Each bus is commodious, seating 40 passengers, each being entitled to a seat, and when all are taken the bus is declared full and no more passengers are admitted, there being no such thing as hanging on to a strap for five or six miles, or crowding a hundred people into a place intended to hold half that number, and there is no necessity for a gentleman to rise and give a lady his seat.

As soon as a passenger mounts a bus he takes a seat inside or on top, as he may prefer, and there is room, both inside and on top, for his baggage. He immediately comes to him, requires his destination, and charges him accordingly, and gives him a ticket which he is required to show in case of dispute, and which contains the principal stations of that line, the one nearest his stopping-place being punched. The ticket also contains the amount of his fare. In case the passenger should let himself be carried beyond the station punched, another fare is immediately collected. The conductor does not announce any stops, so each person has to look out for himself.

Undoubtedly the best method of transportation in London is the underground railway. This, however, only serves a certain portion of the city and its stations are quite widely separated. Its fares are a trifle more than those of the omnibus company.

In summer a great deal of travel for pleasure near London is by river steamboats. This traffic is all in the hands of the Victoria Steamboat Company, whose boats run every few minutes from London bridge to Chertsey, calling at 15 intermediate piers. The fares are from one penny to six pence on week days, and double that on Sundays and holidays. These boats are set low in the water and have only one deck, which is all open, the only protection being an awning which is stretched over a portion of the stern. As most of the bridges are very low, the boats, in order to pass under them at high water, have to have a joint in the smokestack, which is lowered to the water level while passing through the arches.

For those who can afford it nothing can beat a cab as a means of getting around. There are two kinds of these, the four-wheeler and the two-wheeler or hansom. The hansom is by far the easier riding of the two, and as the driver is perched up behind there is nothing to obstruct the view. The fare is fixed by law, a cab hired by time costs two shillings sixpence (about 60 cents) per hour, while those hired by the distance charge accordingly, no fare, however, being less than one shilling. In addition to the legal fare the driver always expects a tip from two pence to sixpence—London's Weekly.

Variation.

The little boy whose head has a tendency to bulge out at the top like a mushroom, owing, as his parents truly believe, to the extraordinary amount of knowledge it contains, was gazing gravely at his father who was making his breakfast off ice water.

"Please change a great deal when they grow up, don't they?" the boy observed.

"Of course," his mother answered. "And yet they're very much the same after all," he continued, musingly.

"What are you talking about?"

"About grown men and boys. When a boy goes out and eats whatever he wants and pays no attention to what anybody says, the next day he has a stomach ache."

"Very often."

"And when a grown man goes out to a banquet, the only difference is that the next morning he has a headache. The ache seems to move around, but it stays in the same place."

"Detroit."

"Your neighbor."

It is difficult to see how their can ever be a reunion of the factions of the Democratic party. No other class of politicians have come in for such strong and qualified abuse at the hands of the people as they have. Investigation of a Mechanicsburg Fight This Morning.

The mantle of charity was thrown about the shoulders of Mrs. Lon Charity in the police court this morning. There was a large crowd.

She and Laura Miller and John Finlay Hamilton were dismissed without a fine.

Pretty Maggie Roush, Susie Eggleston and Alice Campbell were all fined. The Campbell woman went to the shanty-boat of Mrs. Charity on Island creek and was ordered out. According to her version she started to obey when she was seized by Mrs. Charity and stricken in the eye. At any rate there was a rough and tumble fight, and the Campbell woman happened to be on top when Maggie Roush and the Eggleston woman rolled forth to do battle in the name of humanity. The former struck the other with a jammed spoke, and how many others jumped on could not be learned. The Campbell female had three cuts on the head, a black eye and other injuries.

Maggie Roush was fined $20 and costs and Susie Eggleston and Alice Campbell $5 and costs.

Residents in Mechanicsburg say that this gang should be broken up. That it is a nucleus at all hours of the day and night for all the youths in the locality.

All the women liquidated their flues and were released this forenoon.

THE BAR MEETS
To Draft Resolutions of Respect
—To Meet Again Monday.

Judge Marshall's Death Creates Much Genuine Sorrow.

The sudden death of Judge Chas. S. Marshall at Clinton, yesterday caused widespread sorrow in the city, where no one was better known or more universally respected among the older citizens.

Mr. J. E. Ezell today received a letter from Judge Marshall, written yesterday morning, announcing his arrival in Kentucky. A sad-sounding intention to come to Paducah. He also stated that he stood his long trip well, but that Mrs. Marshall was somewhat fatigued.

Up to noon Mr. E. Ezell had received no information relative to the disposition of the remains, and thinks that Mrs. Marshall, who is in delicate health, is in a critical condition as a result of the shock.

The bar met at the county court house this morning and the proceedings were as follows:

At a meeting of the members of the bar, held at the court house in the city on the 14th of Nov., 1896, the following resolutions were adopted relative to the death of Hon. Chas. S. Marshall, of Missouri, Montana. Hon. W. S. Bishop was elected chairman and Mr. W. C. Kidd secretary of said meeting.

On motion of Major Thos. E. Moss the chairman appointed the following members of the bar a committee on resolutions, viz: L. D. Hubbard, Q. Q. Quigley, J. W. Bloomfield, Thos. E. Moss and H. E. Burnett, and said committee was instructed to report next Monday, at 8:30 o'clock a. m.

On motion of Major Josiah Harris the meeting adjourned until 8:30 Monday morning.

GRAND OPENING.

Of the Palmer House Bar Room, Under New Management, Tonight, Nov. 11.

Newport & Mythe, who have purchased the Palmer House Bar, extend a cordial invitation to their friends and the public in general to call to night, November 11th, and partake of the elegant lunch which will be served free to all.

The new managers of this prominent resort are not new at the business, but pride themselves on knowing the wants of the public. Nothing but first-class goods will be handled by them, and the most courteous treatment to all can be expected. Don't fail to be on hand at the grand opening on Saturday night, November 11th. Everybody invited.

Mr. W. T. Miller,
Paducah, Ky.

DEAR SIR:—We are now starting up the Baldwin, E. Hinton and Valley Gen piano factories and Hamilton organ factory in anticipation of a good trade during the months of November and December. In order to run these factories full force requires a special drive for new business and cash.

Do the best you can from that territory and let us hear from you with the best possible reports.

Let us hear from you.

D. H. BARNES & CO.
Dictated by A. A. VanBuren.

The above letter was handed us by which we see the wave of prosperity is coming south. These piano factories are all located in Cincinnati and are conducted by an old and reliable firm. Mr. Miller is here to stay, has a store under the Palmer House and will sell goods at agents' prices till further notice.

SCHOOL SHOES

Now Read Best Sorts--SMALLEST Prices.

We are going to our Children's Shoes at the VERY SMALLEST PROFIT.

We want to draw the children's trade; we want your children to grow up in our shoes, then they will trade with us all their lives. If you are not trading with us, ask of our customers about our shoes, and about our way of treating our children—and their feet.

First-Class Watch Repairing vs. Living Prices. Botch Work vs. Cheap Prices.

DOES YOUR WATCH STOP? IS YOUR WATCH UNRELIABLE? CAN'T YOU GET YOUR WATCH CLOSELY REGULATED? Has Your Watch Been Required by Others and Does Not Give Satisfaction?

If you are having trouble with your time piece bring it to JOHN J. BLEICH'S Jewelry Store, let us examine it for you, and if you have a watch that can be made a good time piece we will tell you so. We do not claim to be the cheapest watch repairers in town at the start, but we do claim to have THE BEST watchmakers, give you the best satisfaction and be the cheapest to you in the long run. To give satisfaction with first-class watch work is our special pride.
